UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF NEVADA

DANA BAKER, an individual

Plaintiff,

v.

DONALD DEXTER, JR., an individual; and DOES I-X,

Defendants.

Case No.: 2:15-CV-00247-GMN-VCF

STIPULATION AND ORDER
REGARDING COURT ORDERED IME

Plaintiff DANA BAKER and Defendant DONALD DEXTER, JR., through their counsel of record, hereby submit this Stipulation and Order Regarding the Court Ordered IME pursuant to the Court's Order on June 10, 2015:

1. On May 26, 2015 Defendant filed an Emergency Motion to Enforce Court Ordered IME (Docket No. 14) And Request for Rule 37 Sanctions Against Plaintiff's Counsel (Docket No. 16). The Court set a hearing for Defendant's Motions on June 10, 2015. On June 5, 2015, Plaintiff timely filed her Opposition to Defendant's Motion.

2. On June 10, 2015, the Court heard Defendant's Motion and Request for Sanctions. After oral arguments from both parties, The Court granted Defendant's Motion to Enforce, and took under submission Defendant's Motion for Sanctions. The Court extended the expert disclosure deadline, rebuttal expert disclosure deadline, discovery cut off deadline, dispositive motion deadline, and pre-trial order due-date deadline.

3. The IME shall take place with Dr. Steven McIntire on June 26, 2015 at 8:00 a.m. at 400 N. Stephanie Street, Suite 310, Henderson NV 89014. This examination shall include a patient history, diagnostic examination and manipulation of Plaintiff's body, and other such tests and procedures which are ordinarily considered part of a general physical and medical examination and necessary for the examining physician to evaluate Plaintiff's injuries that are in controversy in the subject incident. This examination is conducted to evaluate Plaintiff regarding the nature, extent and cause of the injuries to Plaintiff; the appropriateness of any past medical treatment or any future medical treatment currently suggested; any future medical treatment needed; the amount, necessity, and reasonableness of the charges; and Plaintiff's ability to work.
